JL-Despite Hoch's having expressed approval of the O'Toole book, as soon as you are in touch with him please check my recollection, which could be wrong. Ask him if any official ever said that the man in CE257/Odum 1 ever called himself LHO. Ask him also for what the C.I.A. said, first and finally.
If he has read the NYReview piece or any of the stories, ask his opinion.
While this can represent the leading of a horse to water, my real reason is to be certain of my own recollection, which I do not fully trust in this.
That this af air could make any kind of story in its least unflattering representation means the media today will go for anythi
The AP story said the picture had been published. What makes two other copies of it news of any kind?
The real news is that the crazy Bud sued for the wrong pictures! and didn't go back for the right ones after I told him and sitbe t proof. HW 3/26/75
